

PECAN FACTORY RE-OPENS MONDAY; LINDSAY MANAGER

Announcement was made yesterday that the pecan factory would be opened Monday morning. The factory is located on South Washington street and has not been in operation for several months. The plant is one of the best in the country and is equipped with both pecan and peanut machinery.

It is stated that the new company will begin at once to purchase pecans and peanuts and the pecan machinery here will be put in operation as soon as stock sufficient to justify operation has been purchased. The peanut machinery will not be operated this year for the reason that the acreage devoted to peanuts here will not justify the operation of this portion of the plant but all peanuts offered the plant will be purchased and they will be shipped to Denison. The company desires to stimulate peanut growing and for that reason a market will be provided for all the crop that is brought to the city.

The first work that will be done is to get in the market for pecans and the next will be some remodeling of the plant which calls for the building of an office. As soon as supplies have been received it is stated that labor will be provided for about ten persons this fall and it is hoped that the plant will be kept growing until a large force is on the payroll. The owners are also planning to manufacture a mixed feed which will be placed on the market.

No statement has been made yet as to the ownership of the plant but it is possible that many Ardmore people will take an interest in the institution and it is not stated yet what the name of the new company will be.

Ardmore people who are intensely interested in building an enterprise in the city which will employ labor and provide a market for farm products will be pleased to know that Walter E. Lindsay will be the manager of the new company and that he will take active charge of the business tomorrow morning.

Mr. Lindsay is one of the best business men in the city. For several years he has been in the oil mill business and he is trained along the line of doing big things and if he is provided with the capital the volume of the business requires it is certain that he can build a mammoth institution of the pecan and peanut plant.

OLD RESIDENT PASSES AWAY

Mrs. R. R. Davis, aged 73 years, 2 months, 20 days, died Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock at her home on South Sixth street. Death was caused from paralysis of the stomach from which she had been suffering for some time. Funeral services were held from the residence Tuesday at 12:30 p. m., the services being conducted by Rev. Cole. Interment was made in the Rose Hill cemetery at Ardmore at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Davis was a very kindly old lady, beloved by all. She was a wonderful musician, even in her last years and many a party of Wilson folks has been entertained by Grandma Davis at her piano before she became bedfast. She came to Wilson in 1916 from Brownsville, Tenn., and had resided here continually since that time.

The deceased leaves seven sons and two daughters: R. L. Davis, of Durant; J. R. Davis, of Macon, Texas; C. S. and W. D. Davis, of Fox, R. L. Davis, of Shreveport, A. D. and E. W. Davis, of Wilson. Miss Betty Davis, of Fox, and Miss Florine Davis, of Wilson.

When "Grandma" Davis began to get worse she insisted that her old doctor be sent for. This was Dr. W. T. Ware, of Asheville, N. C., a former Wilson physician. The wife was sent Thursday and Dr. Ware wired back that he would go to the end of the world if he could serve her in any way. He arrived here Saturday and was in almost constant attendance at the bedside until the end.—Wilson Gazette.

VOICE CULTURE TEACHER STARTS CLASS IN WILSON

Mrs. T. L. Wright of Ardmore, a teacher of voice, will be in Wilson every Wednesday and Saturday to teach voice culture. She will use the room of Mrs. E. F. Case, local musical instructor, on these days. Mrs. Case is devoting all of her time teaching the piano. Mrs. Wright comes very highly recommended. She is an active member of the Philharmonic club of Ardmore and has studied under some of the best talent of the East. Four years she spent in Cincinnati under Signor Lino Mattioli. In New York she studied under Madame Tecla Vigna, who was with the Metropolitan Grand Opera. She also studied under Mme. Fox of Boston and Von Ivans of Chicago. Besides this she studied dramatic art under Mrs. Munsenheimer of Cincinnati and Mrs. Gerard of Boston.

Mrs. Wright intends to put on a play or two during the year and also to have community sings which she will pattern after Ardmore who holds them monthly at Central Park.—Wilson Gazette.

Feet vs. Head

"The American born are educating their feet in the cabarets and dance halls," according to one social worker, "while the foreign born are educating the colleges and night schools and training their brains."

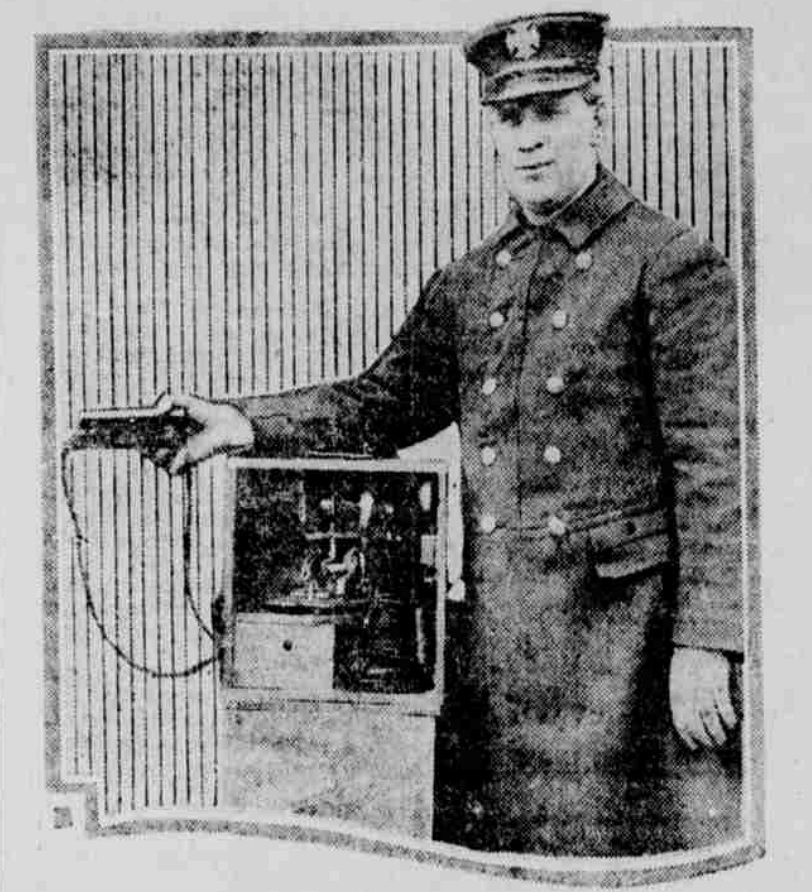

It had been claimed there would be no night schools in the large cities, if it were not for the foreign born. Of course, this may be true because it smashes down to the proposition that the natives of this country have schooling advantages in their childhood that are not to be found in foreign countries.

This Alarm Calls Up Police to Tell on Burglars or Phones to Fireman

Soon the unemployment situation will extend to the burglary industry. William J. Jones, member of the New York City fire department declares. He has invented a combined burglar and fire alarm. To detect burglars, wire connections lead from windows and doors which if opened transmit an electric impulse to a photograph and telephone mechanism. The photograph starts calling the street number into the telephone transmitter and an operator relays the call to the police. In case of fire, heat melts a connection which puts the photograph telephone mechanism into action. The photograph shows Fireman Jones with his alarm.

WHOLESALE ARREST OF LAW VIOLATORS IN EAST EXPECTED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Number of arrests on charges of bribery and conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws are expected to be made within the next few days in New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, it was learned today at prohibition headquarters.

The arrests, prohibition officials declared, would be based on evidence found by enforcement agents who raided the Baltimore office of Samuel Albrecht, charged in New York with an attempt to offer a $50,000 bribe to E. C. Yellowly, acting state prohibition director of New York.

Seizure of ninety distilleries in Maryland and Kentucky, officials said was to follow the rest, evidence having been obtained, it was said, showing withdrawals of large amounts of liquors. Names of the distilleries were not disclosed but it was indicated that several in the vicinity of Baltimore were involved.

Legionnaires Urged To Commemorate Birth of Theodore Roosevelt

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 22.—Commemoration of the sixty-third anniversary of former President Theodore Roosevelt's birth on October 27 is urged by John G. Emery, national commander of the American Legion, in a letter sent today to all legion posts.

"The American Army in France and in the camps at home never had a better friend than former President Theodore Roosevelt," says Commander Emery's letter. "If he had had his wish he would have fought and died at our side; as it was, he fought the good cause at home until, like the soldier on the firing line, he fell, fighting with his face to the enemy."

"By his vigorous efforts for preparedness and national unity he made all Americans his debtors. But the men who wore the uniforms of the United States are peculiarly in his debt. No one will ever know how many American lives were saved to future usefulness by his appeals for adequate preparation before war came, and for public support of the nation's fighting arm while the war was in progress."

"On October 27 the nation will commemorate the sixty-third anniversary of Theodore Roosevelt's birth. The National Commander urges local posts throughout the country either to organize celebrations of their own or to take active part in whatever celebrations may be arranged by other bodies in their communities."

LUTE JACKSON RECALLS EARLY HISTORY OF INDIAN TERRITORY

Lute Jackson who is a resident of this city owns a ranch on Mud Creek, five miles west of Cornish in Jefferson county. In speaking of water on his ranch he says he has pools that have never been dry but twice, once in 1881 and again in 1896. He says these pools are now getting low and will not furnish water for his cattle for longer than three weeks more.

Should these natural pools become dry Mr. Jackson says he will dig wells to get water for his cattle.

Mr. Jackson in speaking of his long residence in this section of the state says that he was getting to be an "old man" when Sherman Jones moved to Indian Territory. Mr. Jackson came with his parents to Montague county, Texas, when he was six years of age. He was born in 1857 and it was during the Civil war that he lived in North Texas. In about the year 1872 his mother moved to Indian Territory, his father having died while they lived in Texas.

The histories that are written of the early days in this country do not have much of truth says Mr. Jackson and it is really difficult for correct information to be gathered. There are but a few old timers here now and many of the incidents of the early days have been forgotten.

Mr. Jackson calls to mind when the raid was made by Indians in the Illinois Bend community which is just across the river from Leon in Love county. He was playing a game of ball with soldiers on Mud Creek when Indians made a rush upon the soldiers and drove their horses away. The soldiers had muzzle loading guns and fired upon the Indians but the Indians lay down upon the sides of their horses and escaped the bullets and made no effort to fight back. The Indians had not come to give fight to the soldiers but to rob them of their horses and they succeeded. He states that every horse was rounded up and run out of the country and captured by the Indians but the chief object in taking them, Mr. Jackson says, was to put the soldiers afoot so they could not trail them down and give battle.

As well as he remembers Mr. Jackson there were as many as 500 white people slain in that one raid and the soldiers were unable to get horses to follow their flight.

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Oct. 22.—Love absolutely laughs at locksmiths, pretty Winnie Mann will tell the world. Paul Gardner of Tupelo, Ark., the man she loved was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for automobile theft. Sheriff J. R. Hogg granted the plea of Miss Mann and Gardner was taken under guard before Judge Deem where he said "I do." Gardner will reside in Jefferson City at the "State House" while his wife will go to his home at Tupelo.

INJUNCTION HANDED DOWN AGAINST D. M. FERRY SEED COMPANY

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 22.—An injunction against D. M. Ferry Seed Company, restraining it from selling seeds in Oklahoma unless the state statute regarding the labeling of seeds is complied with, has been handed down by Judge Carlant of the United States Circuit court of appeals at St. Louis. Information of this effect was received here today by C. W. King, assistant attorney general, who represented John A. Whitehurst, president of the state board of agriculture and plaintiff in the suit.

Judge Farland reversed a decision in the case rendered by Federal Judge John C. Pollock, when he sat in the western Oklahoma district in 1920.

The circuit court held that stamping seed packages with the words "one per cent germination" was not sufficiently exact to comply with the state statute, which provides that the "approximate percentage of germination must be shown."
